

THIN BLUE LINE

~ 20:00 -

- David Harris tells friends, Vidor cop re: killing police officer
 - Police in Dallas want Harris to confirm the facts they had ("we didn't want him to tell us what he thought...")
- David Harris recounts story of that night
 - "time just stopped or something"
 - w/ wistful, almost happy expression
 - "like a flash"
- Randall Adams ~~star~~ tells narrative of the night
 - Harris had "an arsenal"; 'messing around' w/ gun
 - "he wanted to go to the movies, so we went to the movies"
 - 183 - reenactment of viewing movies at Drive-In
 - 1st "I'm trying to speak for all of you! I am the student body!"
 - 2nd cheerleading + apple-eating vixen
 - sappy couple eating dinner; sex scene (mild but implied)
 - [slight implication of pull of guns, substances, sexually suggestive material]
 - he (Harris) didn't want to leave
- Harris drops Adams back at motel; Adams offers job
 - for David Harris as fresh shadowing
 - walks to store, goes
- Adams
 - Watches 9-930 Carol Burnett, 10 some of news, goes to sleep.
- Adams gives statement to stenographer
 - 183 Highway / 1-35
 - Inwood Road
 - Fort Worth Ave
 - police say that end of statement + not remembering is "conveniently went blank"
 - (P.O. #3) →

- newspaper: "blacking out"
- Morning News runs story that Adams CONFESSED.
("I couldn't dispute this because I didn't even know about it" - Adams)

What car was it?

logo compar.

back end/tail compare

taillight compare

two shots each, 1 of car(s) driving away

Did the P.O. (woman) hit the car?

- S. Kittrell searched the blue Comet
- Mr Cunningham "finally found one place... bullet had been but daughter creased up" totaled it.

R. Adams asks Edith James for help.

"a lot of ppl think, well, a woman lawyer; she's bound to believe anything she's told"

(photo of wrecked comet)

• Douglas Mulder (D.A.): no defeats
Convictions (ending in long sentences, death)

• gets Dennis White involved
"he kept saying this is one we"

• Dennis White tells Mulder, "I got a car in the trunk before it was killed"

~ 50:00 ~

THE END